1 General Information

The Beilstein Publishing System allows authors to submit a new manuscript for the Beilstein Journal of Nanotechnology, to upload a revised manuscript version after peer review and to provide any comments in the context of proofreading. Once a new manuscript has been submitted, authors can track the progress and view manuscript details throughout the whole process until publication. In addition, authors will be informed by email about the most important status changes of their manuscript. Some of these emails are also sent cc to all co-authors. The submission or resubmission of a manuscript may be interrupted and resumed at any time. All manuscripts are given a unique manuscript number to help identify them within the Beilstein Publishing System.

This document gives authors an overview of the different steps during the submission or revision process and guides them through the Beilstein Publishing System.

2 Access to the Beilstein Publishing System

In order to submit a new manuscript for the Beilstein Journal of Nanotechnology please login to the Beilstein Publishing System at <http://www.beilstein-journals.org/bps> with your user name and password.

If you do not have an existing user account, please click on “Register” at the top right corner of the screen or select the corresponding link from the login screen submenu. The registration form will open. Enter your personal details and a username in the corresponding text fields and verify all data before saving them by clicking the “Save” button. ### 3 Change User Role

If you have been assigned more than one role within the Beilstein Publishing System (e. g. "Author" or "Referee"), you may easily select your required role for the task you wish to carry out. Once you are logged in, you can, if necessary, select a different role by using the drop down box which is located at the top right corner of the screen and click on "Change" to show the manuscripts associated with the new user role. You will be assigned the user role "Author" after finalization of your first submission in the Beilstein Publishing System. Before that, you will be assigned the user role "Reader".

4 Manuscript Submission

After you have logged in please open the main menu "Manuscript Submission" and click on the link "Submit New Manuscript" given on the left side of the screen. You will be directed to a new page where you have to select the Beilstein Journal you want to submit your manuscript to. After choosing the Beilstein Journal of Nanotechnology and clicking on the button "Go" the corresponding submission form of the Beilstein Publishing System opens which allows you to upload all relevant manuscript data step by step. Mandatory entry fields are marked with an asterisk (*) on each submission page. You can proceed with the stepwise submission process by using the "Next" button or alternatively, save any manuscript data without continuing by choosing the "Save" button. If you would like to return to previous submission pages, please click on the "Previous" button. In general, you should avoid moving to preceding pages within the Beilstein Publishing System by using the browser "Back" button because this can lead to synchronization problems with your session on the server.

4.1 Checklist

The first step in the submission process is to go through the Submission Checklist to inform you of all relevant data and information required for the submission process. Please also ensure that your manuscript has been prepared according to the Instructions for Authors before you start the submission of your paper. You must be one of the contributing authors to be eligible to submit the manuscript.

4.2 My Details

During the second step you are asked to review your contact details provided on initial registration or saved after the latest update. Any changes will be saved in your user profile. As submitting author you are responsible for the manuscript until publication. In this context you will receive all email correspondence pertaining to the manuscript and you will be allowed to view the progress of your manuscript throughout the whole publication process.

4.3 My ORCID iD

In this step you may provide your ORCID iD. An ORCID iD is a unique and persistent digital identifier that distinguishes you from other researchers and reliably connects you with your research contributions, to ensure that your work is properly attributed.

You start adding your ORCID iD by pressing the button labelled “Create or connect your ORCID iD”. This opens a pop up window in which you may either register a new account with ORCID or sign in with an already existing account thereby authorizing that your ORCID iD is transmitted to our manuscript tracking system so that it can be connected to you as an author of this manuscript.

The screenshot shows the Beilstein Publishing System interface for manuscript submission. The top navigation bar includes links for 'MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION', 'MY JOURNAL', 'MANUSCRIPT ADMINISTRATION', 'SUPPORT & CONTACT', 'ABOUT', and 'HELP'. A user is logged in as 'Beilstein in role: Author'. The main content area shows the 'My ORCID ID' step of a 9-step process. The steps are: 1. Checklist, 2. My Details, 3. My ORCID ID (highlighted in red), 4. Upload Files, 5. Author Details, 6. Manuscript Details, 7. Cover Letter, 8. Referees, 9. Finalize. Below the steps are 'Previous', 'Save', and 'Next' buttons. A 'MY ORCID ID' section contains a note: 'You may add your ORCID ID to this manuscript.' and a 'Create or connect your ORCID ID' button. The left sidebar contains links for 'MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION' (Submit New Manuscript, My Manuscripts), 'SUBMISSION INFORMATION' (Submission Checklist, Instructions for Authors, Instructions for Referees, Copyright & License, Competing Interests Policy, Manuscript Style Guide, Download Templates), and 'BEILSTEIN JOURNAL OF NANOTECHNOLOGY'.

4.4 Upload Files

All relevant manuscript files are uploaded in this screen. Please assign the file type for each separate file by selecting the corresponding entry from the drop down list. You can choose from the following entries:

- Main Manuscript* (including all figures, schemes, equations and tables)
- Graphical Abstract
- Supporting Information
- Review Only Material (not intended for publication)

*Note: LaTeX manuscripts, which adhere to the Beilstein class definition, may be uploaded by choosing the file type “Main Manuscript”, but only as Zip archives. These Zip-files must contain a TeX document, a “bib” file for any externally referenced bibliography and all graphic files referenced in the TeX document. The graphical abstract, supporting information files or review-only material must be provided separately.

Browse for the individual file on your local computer, select the corresponding file name in the opened dialog box and click on “Open”. For acceptable file formats, please see the Instructions for Authors. You may also enter short comments for each file in a text box.

Up to four selected files can be uploaded simultaneously by clicking the “Upload” button. Further files can be uploaded after the first file set. You will not be allowed to finalize the submission process, until the main manuscript and graphical abstract have been uploaded.

After successful uploading, the files are listed in the lower section of the screen. This area remains empty until the first files are saved in the system. Double check the files you have chosen to upload. If any error occurred with the file selection, you can delete the file from the list by clicking the “Remove” button and afterwards restart the upload process. You may also view or download the files by clicking on the file name.

4.6 Manuscript Details

The following information must be provided for the manuscript being submitted:

- Type of Article: Please select the appropriate type of article from the drop-down list (Full Research Paper, Letter, Review, Commentary, Editorial or Book Report).
- Title: Enter the manuscript title in the text field.
- Abstract: Enter the abstract of your manuscript in the text field.
- Keywords: Enter five keywords separated by semicolons in the text field.
- Subject Area: Choose one or more subject areas which are relevant for your manuscript. This will help the editor to find suitable referees for the peer review.

The best way to fill out the text fields is by copy and paste from a word processing program. If you copy and paste special characters from versions older than Microsoft Word 2003 these may appear as Roman letters. To solve this problem, please use the corresponding control ( $\Omega$  symbol) in the horizontal toolbar above the text entry field (see “Hints & Tips”).

5 Tracking the Submission Progress

5.1 Manuscript Overview

If you would like to proceed further with an incomplete manuscript submission for the Beilstein Journal of Nanotechnology, to upload a revised manuscript version after peer review or to provide any proofread comments, please access the Beilstein Publishing System via <http://www.beilstein-journals.org/bps>.

You will be directly brought to the administration section of the Beilstein Publishing System which will show you an overview of all your submitted manuscripts. This allows you to track the progress and view details of all your manuscripts throughout the entire submission process.

A list provides you with the most important information about your manuscripts: the manuscript ID, the name of the Beilstein Journal the manuscript has been submitted to, the type of article, the editor assigned to the paper, the manuscript title, the submission date, an indication whether the submission process is still active or not, the status of the work progress until a final decision is made on the manuscript and the progress of the current workflow step. The following status entries for a manuscript are possible:

- Incomplete Submission (the submission process has not been finalized yet)
- Review (during peer review)
- Revision (request for a revised manuscript version after peer review)
- Accepted (the manuscript is, in principle, accepted for publication)
- Final Proofread (request for final proofreading the layouted manuscript version resulting in the final PDF and the fulltext HTML version of the manuscript)
- With Editorial Office (processing steps not relating to the author, e. g. initial check, copyediting, layouting etc.)
- Published (publication of the final PDF and the fulltext HTML version of the manuscript)

- Withdrawn (withdrawal of the manuscript by the author)
- Rejected (rejection of the manuscript before or after peer review)
- Retracted (retraction of the manuscript after publication because of serious errors)

By default, all your manuscripts submitted to the Beilstein Journals are shown on the overview page but you may limit the display by using the search fields provided above the list. In addition, the list entries can be sorted by clicking on the respective column header.

When the mouse is moved over the entry given in the column “Status” of a manuscript a tooltip showing the due date and remind date is displayed until the corresponding workflow step is finished.

The details section of a manuscript can be displayed using the link “Show” giving you more details about an individual manuscript and from here you can also proceed further with the submission process.

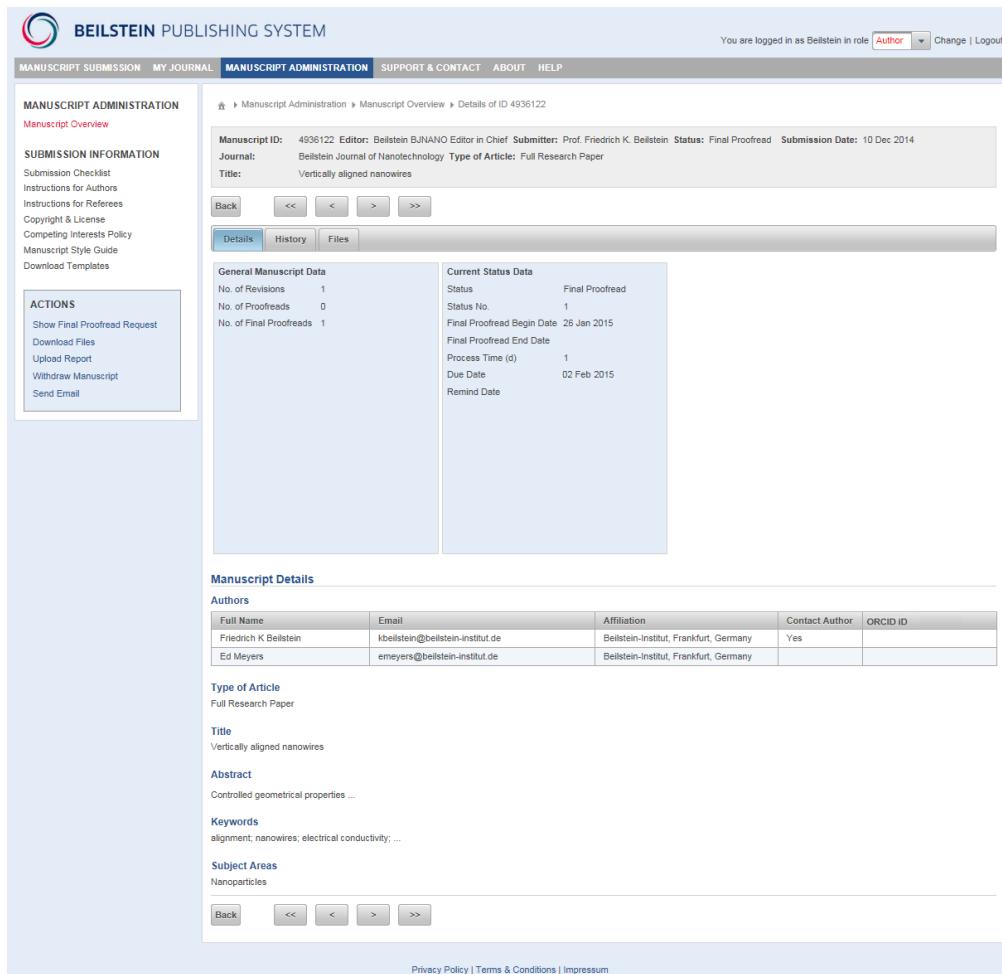

The screenshot shows the Beilstein Publishing System interface. The top navigation bar includes links for MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION, MY JOURNAL, MANUSCRIPT ADMINISTRATION (which is currently selected), SUPPORT & CONTACT, ABOUT, and HELP. A user is logged in as 'Author'. The main content area is titled 'Manuscript Overview for User Role Author'. It features a search bar with fields for 'Manuscript ID', 'Submission Date From', 'Editor', 'Submission Date To', and buttons for 'Search' and 'Clear'. Below the search bar, a message indicates 'Found 5 manuscripts'. A table lists the details of five manuscripts, including their ID, journal, type, editor, title, submission date, active status, and status. Each row has a 'Show' link in the 'Details' column. The table columns are: Manuscript ID, Journal, Type of Article, Editor, Title, Submission Date, Active, Status, Progress, and Details.

6 Manuscript Revision

You will be notified by email if the editor decides that you need to revise your manuscript before publication. The assessment and comments resulting from the peer review, the initial check (if available), and the format check will be provided in PDF format and you will find links to these reports in the decision letter.

To submit the revised manuscript version, please log in to the Beilstein Publishing System at <http://www.beilstein-journals.org/bps>. After login the manuscript overview page opens and an overview of all your manuscripts submitted to the Beilstein Journals will be displayed. Please open the details section of the relevant manuscript in the status “Revision” and choose the action “Upload Revision” from the action list. The manuscript revision form opens to allow you to perform the revision process step by step. Mandatory entry fields are marked with an asterisk (*). You can proceed with the stepwise process by using the “Next” button or alternatively, save any manuscript data without continuing by choosing the “Save” button. If you would like to return to previous pages, please click on the “Previous” button. In general, you should avoid moving to preceding pages within the Beilstein Publishing System by using the browser “Back” button because this can lead to synchronization problems with your session on the server.

Please ensure that you perform all required changes on the latest file version by downloading the relevant manuscript files from the Beilstein Publishing System using the tab “Files” (see chapter 5.4).

6.1 Upload Files

The first page of the manuscript revision form provides a list of all files currently associated with your manuscript. After choosing “Replace”, you can replace the main manuscript or any other manuscript file with a new version. You do not need to replace files which have not been changed. You may also upload a new file in this screen, if required. Please assign the file type for each separate file by selecting the corresponding entry from the drop down list. You can choose from the following entries:

- Main Manuscript (including all figures, schemes, equations and tables)
- Graphical Abstract
- Supporting Information
- Review Only Material (not intended for publication)
- Graphics (if the author is requested to upload any graphic separately; this file type may be uploaded as a Zip archive or as individual files)

Browse for the individual file on your local computer, select the corresponding file name in the opened dialog box and click on “Open”. For acceptable file formats, please see the Instructions for Authors. You may also enter short comments for each file in a text box.

Up to five selected files can be uploaded simultaneously by clicking the “Upload” button. Further files can be uploaded after the first file set. After successful uploading, the new files will be added to the list of already existing files. If any error occurred during file upload, the file can be deleted from the list by choosing the “Remove” button and afterwards the upload process may be started once again. You are also able to view or download the files by clicking on the file name. The column “Changes” indicates if an existing file has been changed during the revision process or if a file is completely new.
