1 General Information

The Beilstein Publishing System used with the Beilstein Journal of Nanotechnology allows referees to download the manuscripts which they have agreed to review and upload their referee reports with all their recommendations regarding the acceptance of the manuscript. In addition, referees can upload additional files with their reports and send confidential comments to the editor. The submission of a referee report may be interrupted and resumed at any time.

If you are a first-time reviewer for the Beilstein Journal of Nanotechnology, we recommend that you consult the document "The Beilstein Journal of Nanotechnology" for further information about the journal.

This document gives referees an overview of the different steps during the review process and guides them through the Beilstein Publishing System.

3 Token based review without login

3.1 Manuscript Details

If you click on the token link given in the acceptance confirmation email the "Manuscript Details" page of the respective manuscript will open without any login requirement to the Beilstein Publishing System. On this screen some general data of the review process of the relevant manuscript will be shown. Whenever an editor decides that more than one review round is necessary for a manuscript and you agreed to review such a manuscript a second time, you can see the details of all review cycles here.

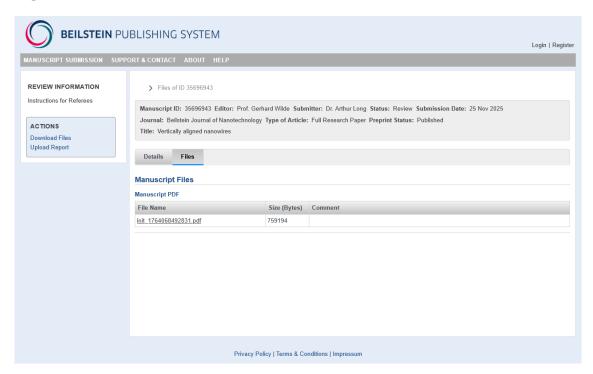

On the left side of the screen you can find a link to the Instructions for Referees. Directly below are the action links "Download Files" and "Upload Report".

Action	Comments
Download Files	The tab "Files" opens for downloading the relevant manuscript files (see chapter 3.2).
Upload Report	This action allows the upload of a referee report (see chapter 3.3).

3.2 Download Files

Choosing the tab "Files" or the action link "Download Files" will display all relevant manuscript files with the file name, the file size and any comment entered by the authors during the submission process. Individual files can be downloaded by clicking on the file name. This can be the main manuscript, any supporting information file, any review-only material and whenever it is a repeated review round also a response to review file.

3.3 Upload Report

When you are ready to upload the review report, please choose the action link "Upload Report" to open the review submission form. Mandatory entry fields are marked with an asterisk (*) on each page. You can proceed with the stepwise review submission process by using the "Next" button. If you would like to return to previous submission pages, please click on the "Previous" button. You may save and interrupt the review process at any time by clicking the "Save" button and continue after clicking again on the token link in the acceptance confirmation email. You can access the Beilstein Publishing System either by using the link given in the acceptance confirmation email or directly via the website: https://www.beilstein-journals.org/bps. In both cases the login screen of the Beilstein Publishing System will be displayed. Please enter your user name and password in the appropriate fields and click on the "Login" button to log in.

If you access the Beilstein Publishing System using the Beilstein Journal of Nanotechnology homepage (https://www.beilstein-journals.org/bjnano), please select the main menu "Submission" and afterwards choose the button "My Manuscripts" given on the right side of the screen to open the login page.

You can update your personal profile and your password at any time by selecting "My Journal" from the main menu and "My Details" or "Change Password" from the corresponding submenu.

Once you are logged in, you can, if necessary, select a different role by using the drop down box which is located at the top right corner of the screen and click on "Change" to show the manuscripts associated with the new user role.

4.3 Manuscript Overview

After logging in to the Beilstein Publishing System, the manuscript overview page will be displayed. By default, all the manuscripts of the Beilstein Journals for which you are invited for peer review are shown on the overview page, irrespective of whether you have accepted or declined the invitation to review the corresponding manuscript. A table provides you with the most important information about the manuscript: the manuscript ID, the name of the Beilstein Journal the manuscript has been submitted to, the type of article, the editor, the title, the submitting author, and the status. The status entry is either "Review" or "Completed".

You may limit the display by using the search fields provided above the list. In addition, the list entries can be sorted by clicking on the respective column header.

When the mouse is moved over the entry given in the column "Status" of a manuscript a tooltip showing the due date and remind date is displayed until the corresponding workflow step is finished.

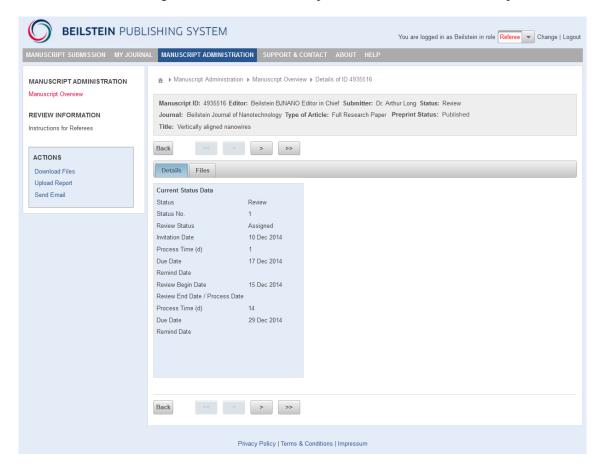

The details section of a manuscript can be displayed using the link "Show" on the right side of the corresponding row. This allows you to proceed further with the review process.

4.4 Manuscript Details

After opening the details section of the manuscript concerned the "Details" tab is selected by default. Below the tab bar some general data of the review process of the relevant manuscript will be shown.

On the left side of the screen, the action list allows you to perform different actions on the manuscript as long as the manuscript is in the review status "Assigned".

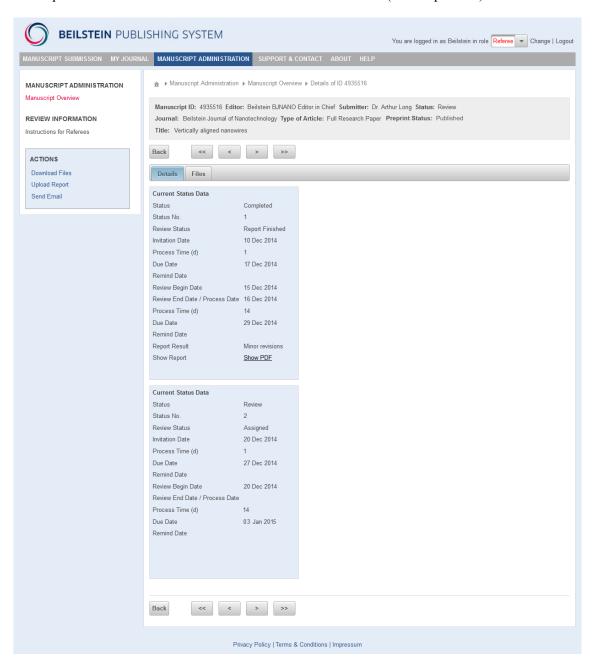

Action	Comments
Download Files	The tab "Files" opens for downloading the manuscript files. Any individual file can be downloaded by a click on the file name (see chapter 4.5)
Upload Report	This action allows the upload of a referee report (see chapter 4.6).
Send Email	An email form opens for sending a message to the editorial office.

The "Back" button lets you return to the manuscript overview page. Alternatively, you may view the details of the first, previous, next or last manuscript mentioned in the overview list by choosing the corresponding arrow above or below the details summary.

If a manuscript is classified as acceptable after the peer review, the editor will request the author to provide a revised version of the paper and to give a point-by-point response to all referee's or editor's comments. In general, the editor will initiate further steps based on the referees' reports and the author's response to them, without seeking further opinion. In special cases concerning new or unusual issues or when authors believe they have been misunderstood, the editor may decide to send the revised manuscript back to the original referees or to new referees.

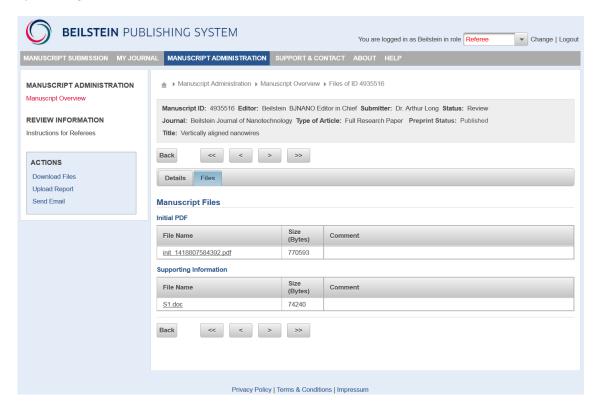

If a referee agrees to review such a manuscript a second time, the dataset of the corresponding manuscript will be displayed again with the status "Review" on the manuscript overview page. On the details page details of the first review process (Review No. 1) with all relevant data including the review report will be displayed as well as a second dataset (Review No. 2). The revised manuscript files and the response to review can be downloaded from the tab "Files" (see chapter 4.5).

4.5 Download Files

Choosing the tab "Files" or the action "Download Files" will display a summary of all files connected with the manuscript which should be reviewed.
